They will receive private lessons of instrumental specialisation, chamber music, music theory and master classes of different specialities given by prestigious lecturers invited for the occasion. They will also participate in public concerts as part of the program of events that the School offers to the city of Santiago. The Syllabus can be downloaded from the website eaem.es

Silvia Cánovas

Former student of the Course in the class of 2020-2021 and current violinist of the Tenerife Symphony Orchestra

"It was a year of personal and musical realisation that marked my approach to auditions and my understanding of the life of a professional musician. I was able to focus 100% on everything I needed to successfully face an orchestral audition".
